

Health Research Authority
East Midlands - Derby Research Ethics Committee

Nottingham REC Centre
The Old Chapel
Royal Standard Place
Nottingham
NG1 6FS

Tel: 02071048093

15 January 2016

Professor Julia Hippisley-Cox
Professor of Clinical Epidemiology & General Practice
Division of Primary Care
13th Floor, Tower Building
University Park
Nottingham
NG7 2RD

Dear Professor Hippisley-Cox

Study Title: QRESEARCH – A new ethical high quality general practice derived database for research
REC reference: 03/4/021
IRAS project ID:

Thank you for sending the progress report for the above study dated 06 January 2016.

The report will be reviewed by the Chair of the Research Ethics Committee, and I will let you know if any further information is requested.

The favourable ethical opinion for the study continues to apply for the duration of the research as agreed by the REC.

03/4/021:

Please quote this number on all correspondence

Yours sincerely

Igor Christodoulou

REC Administrative Assistant

Email: NRESCcommittee.EastMidlands-Derby@nhs.net